

Please Don't Take My Baby: A Mother's Heartbreaking Journey Through Foster Care

In this gripping memoir, a mother shares her harrowing journey through the foster care system, fighting to keep her baby while facing the unimaginable challenges of poverty, addiction, and mental illness.

From the moment her newborn son is taken from her arms, the author embarks on a desperate quest to prove her fitness as a parent. She navigates a labyrinthine bureaucracy, enduring invasive home visits, drug tests, and therapy sessions. All the while, she is haunted by the fear that her baby will be adopted by another family.
