Walt Disney was a man of many talents. He was an artist, an animator, a filmmaker, an entrepreneur, and a visionary. He created some of the most beloved characters in the world, including Mickey Mouse, Donald Duck, and Goofy. He also founded the Walt Disney Company, which is now one of the largest and most successful entertainment companies in the world.

Disney's life was not always easy. He faced many challenges, including poverty, failure, and personal tragedy. But he never gave up on his dreams. He persevered and eventually achieved great success.

The Life, Times, Art, and Commerce of Walt Disney is the definitive biography of this extraordinary man. Drawing on exclusive interviews and never-before-seen archival material, Neal Gabler tells the full story of Disney's life, from his humble beginnings in Missouri to his rise to the top of the entertainment industry.

This book is a must-read for anyone who is interested in Disney, the entertainment industry, or American history. It is a fascinating and inspiring story about a man who changed the world.
